RHEUMATIC CURE

HISTORY. This Remedy is composed of the active principle of the Unk Weed, Eng.—Thaspium Cordatum Originis, Lat.—indigenous to Oregon. Grows most abundantly and perfectly in Washington Co.

It contains an ACTIVE VOLATILE Principle, extracted by Ether, and a bitter TONIO Principle, soluble in Alcohol.

PROPERTIES, Etc.

Medical Properties and Uses. It is the most sure and speedy care for Rheumatism, Rheumatise Gout, and Rheumatise Pains of all kinds that was ever introduced in the Materia Medica. THE UNK WEED REMEDY, as prepared by us, in consequence of the existing bitter principle, possesses the necessary virtue of being a POWERFUL TONIC. Premoting the Appetite and Invigerating the whole Digestive Apparatus, thus Building up and Strengthening the system, while at the same time the volatile principle, being absorbed in the blood, acts specifically on the Rheumatic Poison, removing it from the circulation and system.

There are a few remedies known to the Medical Profession which will remove the Rhenmatic Poison from the blood, but where action is so powerful in depressing the sys-tem of the already enfeebled Rheumatic pa-tient, that their use has to be ahandoned be-fore specific effects are obtainable, hence the want of success in treating this prevalent, and in consequence heretofore incurable disease. Unlike these Medicines, already though producing as powerful and as active effects on the blood and system in removing the Rheumatic Poison, also possesses a strong Tonic and recuperating element which admits of its continued use even by the most Delicate and debilitated. Thus we have the combination for the first time of these Two Necessary Elements in one remedy, which accounts for its Superior and never-failing curative effects in

Shall Measures Save the Ministry? The great game that the Ministry are playing is called "Measures." The very name of the game is a very fine one; and when they ask the members to judge them by their measures, it is very natural that some from interest, others from stolid indifference, and still more-speaking logically-from a mere apprehension, not from a comprehension, of the Ministerial game will say-"I am prepared to judge them by their measures." But let us examine the Ministerial game. 'Quite recently we examined the political records of the men. On that occasion we demontrated that neither McCreight, Robertson, nor Holbrook had the smallest this country. The one was the cowardly deserter of the great principle of Confederation in the hour of its greatest need; the other skulked behind the scenes instead of planting himself at the foot-lights on the stage in front of the people; and as for the third, he has not exhibited a single political virtue, unless we exalt his sectional prejudices, and his determined opposition to Union, Confederation, Representative Institutions, and Responsible Government, to the dignity of fidelity to the behind the age, despotic, and illiberal government of the Douglases, Seymours, and Musgraves. So far as the fourth Minister is concerned—he who used New Westminster as a warmingpen-it is matter of public notoriety that his political record contains not a single bright spot, except a dubious support of union with Canada. Such, then, are the men to whom, as we have said before, been committed the Government of this country, -not by the voice of the ople, - not by the support and confidence of the majority of the members of the Assembly; but by the mere volition of te Rump of the Old Family Compact that has ruled this Province with great discredit for the last fourteen years. Such men, it is needless to say, have not one solitary, legitimate claim on the country. They never spent an hour's toil, never a dollar of their money, - never opposed the enemies of Union, Confederation, Representative Institutions, or Respohsible Government. But when the battle was over, the victory won, and the spoil was to be divided, then they came forward as the purest patriots, to greedily devour what better, more honorable, and much more patriotic men produced by years of toilsome labor in the behalf of the country. Now by the accident of being pitchforked into position without the consent of the country, they rise up and demand that they shall be tried by their measures. Their heard of a public measure that has been advocated year after year by either Mr. McCreight, Robertson, Holbrook, or Walkem? If so, let them point it out. We don't know one single measure that the Premier or either of his colleagues has been identified with. The public are our witnesses on this point. We even challenge the organs of the Government to produce one thing that either of the Ministry have originated, agitated, secured for it the sanction of public opinion, and now offer it as one of their FARM, WHARF& RESIDENCE measures, to obtain the support and confidence of the majority of the people's representatives. The thing cannot be dine. Nevertheless, these gentlemen maintain that they are and of right ought at Sooke and known on the Official Map to be judged by their measures. But we say their measures must be their own,-must have been originated by them, - worked out by them, -matured by them, -not the measures of other men. If they were able to point to new and a trail has been running to Leech and novel measures practically beneficial to river from the wharf at a cost of cearly the country, then they might be at least nine hundred dollars. deserving of some consideration, even if they were not trusted with the govern- Desirable Property in ment of the country. But to ask the country to judge them by the measures that other public men have matured and which they have appropriated,—would be like asking one to receive a notorious thief as a gentleman, simply because he presented himself in the fine dress clothes of a citizen from whom he had stolen them. The highest decree of moral science is that every man is justly en-titled to the benefit of his own labor. But the Ministry are determined to steal of 60 feet. the product of the labor of others, -- and then ask an intelligent country to give above property. The whole is surroundthem their support on measures the pro- ed by a substantial fence and will be sold duct of other men's brains. Was there in one lot. Ministry believe that the country will endorse such political thieving? or their representatives tolerate for a session such political wickedness? As well might the pirate captain and his crew, who have seized a ship on the high seas, ask to be kept in command and judged as loyal sailors by the way in which they may manage the ship,—as for McCreight & Co. to ask this country to countenance and uphold them in guiding the ship of State, —of which now they are in possession chor, Boat, I without color of moral right. The mere of our Store. fact of the pirate captain being in command, would not justify any court for the trial of offences committed on the high seas to treat him as the lawful commander. Neither could the high court ja16 of public opinion recognise the right of Messers. McCreight & Co., after robbing

Dr. Calboun met with a serious accident, on Wednesday last, at Olympia. By reason the police and the consider requires were managed between the police and the consideration and the considerati the Indian whisky sellers. There is not the shadow of a doubt in the mind of any sensible person in the community, that the charges Assassination of Fisk, the New brought against the police were true; for al-though the Judge told them that they left the Court without a stain upon their character, yet strange to say they were almost immedi a man of ordinary intelligence, but of late had been flighty in manner. On the night in had been flighty in manner. On the night in question he arose from his bunk, tied a string what it was; therefore it is only fair to preof his gun. The muzzle of the weapon was placed against the forehead. He died instantly. rotten somewhere, and if we can only find out the cause of the evil, we can remedy it by destroying the cause. With all due respect to the Licensing Magistrates, I take it that the cause of the evil arises with them. I allude to their indiscriminate granting of licenses. Why Sir, licenses are granted to men who keep houses, that the magistrates must know no respectable person, or scarcely must know no respectable person, or scarcely passage, unperceived by Fisk, unbuttoned trispassage, unperceived by Fisk, unperceived by Fisk, unperceived by Fisk, ask, do the magistrates think these houses can make a living in any other way than by their owners breaking the law. So that the logical conclusion is that they are granted a license to break the law, for they can de no other trade than that, the doing of which, is breaking the law. Again, if the holding the license is a medium through which the holder may more easily break the law and get the pro-tection of the police to enable him to do so, it follows that the authorities make a profit at both ends, for they get $200 a year for the arrived in San Francisco, and after remaining there four days, Brown was arrested by the think proper to fine him for breaking license which enables nim to break the law, jail. It is said that one of the sailors be-longing to the Shooting Star met Brown a Let the Licensing Magistrates refuse a license to any house, unless they are certain that the requirements of the district, in which the house is situated demand a licensed house as a necessity. 2d, Let the applicant for a license be a man of good character, and in whose integrity the magistrates have full confidence. I think, Sir, by these means we should do away with the cause of the evil, and thereby
